Grant funding opportunities available for community groups and nonprofit organizations

LĪHU'E – The Office of the Prosecuting Attorney, Life's Choices Kaua'i Program is offering grant-in-aid for community groups and non-profit organizations.

These grants will support various projects, programs, or events aligned with drug prevention, intervention, enforcement, treatment, recovery, harm reduction, and community integration strategies.

Prosecuting Attorney Rebecca Like stated, "We encourage eligible applicants to apply. These grants are an opportunity for community organizations to receive funding for projects that benefit the people of Kauai, but may lack the necessary State or Federal funding."

Each applicant will be able to apply for up to $2,000 in grant funds. Eligibility requirements are listed on the grant application. There is no deadline to apply; however, grants will be given on a first-come first-serve basis.

To apply, visit the Life's Choices Kaua'i website at <http://www.kauai.gov/lifechoiceskauai>
